

Camp Fairs

As the new year begins, so does our hectic schedule of camp fairs. In the next few months, we will be visiting a wide variety of places to talk about camp. If you live nearby or are in the area, we'd love to see you! Stop by, find the Falcon booth, and tell some people why you love camp. If you bring a friend who is interested in camp, you'll both receive our new Friends T-shirt (introduced later in the newsletter).

Party Like It's 2011

On December 17, we had a holiday party at the Nature Center at Shaker Lakes...and what a party it was! It was so great to see everyone that I haven't seen since camp ended! We played games, watched the Yearbook DVD, chatted, and ate. Thanks to everyone who came, and a big thanks to everyone who brought a friend! We love to meet new people!

At this party, we introduced a new item of clothing that you can look for--the limited edition Friends T-shirt! If you bring a friend who is interested in camp to a camp event, you and your friend get a t-shirt. If your friend actually signs up for camp, there's an even cooler prize! The Friends T-shirt has a list of reasons we tell our friends to come to Falcon (basically why camp is awesome!) on the back contributed by people you know. Start telling your friends about camp so you can get one soon!

From the Director

This is a busy time of year as we travel to find new campers and visit both current camp families and alumni. We had a very enjoyable evening last weekend in Columbus with alumni Christy Hauck, Betsy Hauck and Lauren Ross. Sorry we missed camper mother/favorite guest horse instructor Jennifer Southworth as her horse show ran late. It was good to see Jacob Honick and Roberta Blaho at the camp fair.

This is also the time of year we start making staff decisions. There are always difficult choices as we have more applicants with Falcon experience than we can possibly hire, and have some attractive resumes from potential new staff. Too many good staff is a tough problem to have but better than the alternative! We'll announce staff hires and CIT selections in upcoming newsletters. Wishing everyone a happy new year,

Dave
