

Spring Break Plans!

Are you going somewhere exciting for spring break? Or maybe you're staying in your very own backyard but have some exciting things planned? Well make sure Falcon is a part of it and that you photo-document it! Bring along a Falcon shirt or sweatshirt, and send us your pictures of you in your shirt, along with where your shirt went and what you did. They will be featured on our Facebook, Twitter, and blog, and there will be prizes!! A prize for furthest distance, most creative, and more!

And Introducing...

We are so excited to announce this year's Counselors in Training (CITs)! It was a tough bunch of decisions to make with a very qualified group of applicants. We are extremely pleased with our final selections. We are confident they will work hard during the summer and provide new ideas of how to make camp an even more fun place to be, all while having a great time and learning a lot. We can't wait to see what these CITs accomplish!

From the Director

Here is a unique opportunity for the camp tuition you pay now to be credited as your camper's future college tuition. The Tuition Rewards program from Sage Scholars does exactly that. Up to $2500 per year of camp tuition is guaranteed to be discounted from the tuition of almost 300 private colleges and universities in 45 states (and growing). This program is free of charge to all families whose children attend Falcon Camp. You will receive an email soon with more details or go to: www.tuitionrewards.com.

We have worked at this program closely and a look at their camp brochure shows almost all the photos are from Falcon, indicative of our work with them on a plan to include more camps. Some of you may be familiar with Tuition Rewards through similar programs in your workplace. This is a real and risk free way to build up college tuition credit at no cost to yourself.

For those of you who weigh the value and cost of camp tuition with the need to save for the future, here's a way to do both for the same amount of money. What a great deal!

If you've already registered for camp this year, good for you, and you may be surprised to see another application accompanying this newsletter. But never fear! We make no mistakes! Simply hand this application to your friend who you think would love a summer at Falcon, along with a detailed description of how great camp is. Make sure they put your name on the "How did you hear about Falcon" line so you can both get your prize!
